Fennemore Craig Attorney Appointed President-Elect of the Western Pension and Benefits Council Phoenix Chapter

PHOENIX, AZ – Fennemore Craig, a leading Mountain West law firm, announced Kristi Lundstrom, an attorney in the firm’s Phoenix office, has been appointed President-Elect of the Western Pension and Benefits Council’s Phoenix Chapter.

“Our lawyers are encouraged to serve and lead professional organizations,” said Steve Good, managing partner of Fennemore Craig. “We congratulate Kristi on her appointment, and we are confident she will be a valuable contributor to the Western Pension and Benefits Council.”

Lundstrom focuses her practice in the areas of ERISA and employee benefits, employment and labor relations and business and finance. She earned her J.D. from Duke University, her M.A. from Brigham Young University and her B.A. from Utah State University. Prior to practicing law, Lundstrom was an English Language Center faculty member at Brigham Young University, where she taught English as a second language to adult international students.

The Phoenix Chapter of the Western Pension and Benefits Council has served as a resource to benefits professionals for over 30 years. The educational programs the Chapter facilitates are designed to meet the particular needs of local members.
