YASAMAN H. HOSSEINI

As an attorney in the Business and Finance Section, Yassi represents clients in merger and acquisition deals and in general corporate matters. Yassi assists clients with entity formation, corporate governance, commercial contracts, and compliance with various federal and state regulations. Yassi also has experience conducting and managing due diligence in buy-side and sell-side transactions.

In her practice, Yassi assists clients with negotiation of agreements, drafting and analyzing various transaction documents including purchase agreements, term sheets, operating agreements, bylaws, corporate resolutions, security agreements, services agreements, and privacy policies. Yassi also has experience representing lenders in commercial lending transactions and assisting in the drafting and review of financing documents, including loan agreements, credit agreements, and security agreements.

Before joining Fennemore, Yassi worked at a Denver-area law firm and focused on business and corporate law. Additionally, she has experience working for the Denver City Attorney's Office, an international transactional law office in Tehran, Iran, Human Rights Watch in Washington D.C., and at the Colorado Department of State. Yassi is fluent in Farsi and proficient in French. Outside of her law practice, she enjoys spending time with friends and family, cooking, traveling, and skiing.
