AMIR FREEMAN

Amir Freeman is an Associate at the firm practicing in Business & Finance and Estate Planning. He works with clients on matters involving entity structure and formation, mergers and acquisitions, trust administration, and trust planning.

Amir earned his law degree from the Gould School of Law at the University of Southern California (USC). During his time at USC, Amir was a mentor at Legal Education Access Pipeline, where he supported low-income, marginalized students to create law school applications. He was also president of USC Gould Street Law and the community outreach chair of the Black Law Student Association. As a USC Research Assistant, he gained valuable insight into how the intersection of law, race, and journalism influences prosecutorial conduct in criminal law.

In his spare time, Amir enjoys mixology, photography, and a challenging game of billiards.
