

JONATHAN PETERS

Jon Peters focuses his practice in business, corporate, and real estate law with a large part of his practice devoted to mergers and acquisitions. He has counseled clients from the start-up phase assisting with organization and fund-raising through the exit process when the client is ready to sell. He also practices regularly in real estate, representing buyers and sellers in commercial transactions, easements, and leasing.

The practice of law is not his first profession. After graduating from college, he joined the Los Angeles Police Department and served for eight years before deciding that law school was the next and final career stage of his life.

Jon is married with five children and enjoys spending time with his family, surfing, mountain bike riding and playing guitar.
