

ANGELA HAN

As a member of the firm's Business Litigation group, Angela assists clients with their most challenging commercial litigation disputes from pre-litigation case assessment to resolution. She has experience defending a broad range of civil matters, including product liability, mass torts, class actions, complex business and contract disputes, unfair competition, personal injury, premises liability, and more. In addition, Angela has experienced advising product manufacturers, retailers, and distributors on risk management, both state and federal regulatory compliance issues, and related litigation. Angela is adept in all litigation phases, including case assessment and early strategy development, pleadings, discovery, and dispositive motions.

Prior to joining the firm, Angela worked as a litigation and dispute resolution associate in the San Francisco Bay Area. During law school, she served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Judge William H. Orrick, United States District Court, Northern District of California.
